McCahon, Colin and Anne : Papers. -- 1914-1989

Scope and Content

This collection includes personal and business papers of Colin and Anne McCahon. Personal papers include correspondence with family (both immediate and extended) and a wide range of friends and acquaintances, among them many other artists; there are also a few other personal and family documents. Also included in the collection are many papers concerning Colin McCahon's work. Some relate to specific art projects, while others relate to art dealers, art societies, galleries and exhibitions. There are papers concerning his theatre interests, including both scripts and designs, and also some general business records, clippings and miscellaneous items. Publications owned by Colin McCahon in this collection consist chiefly of art books, along with bibles and other religious texts he has annotated.

Provenance

Scope and Content

This notebook is a record of the material, at that time in the possession of McCahon's parents, Jack and Ethel McCahon, to be gifted to the Hocken.

The notebook mainly comprises descriptions of paintings, accompanied by various other notes and a photograph. There is also a photograph and description of a painted white calico curtain.

A note reads that the photographs were by R.N. O'Reilly [Ron O'Reilly].

There is also a note attached from Michael Hitchings, then Hocken Librarian, to Stuart Strachan relating to the notebook.
